

Mr. Speroni's petition would impose an unmanageable workload on volunteer examiners and create significant enforcement headaches. While it is an interesting concept, it is not at all practical.